What is the true world population of qadianis ? This is such a question that never had a satisfying answer. There is guessing and estimation only, whereas the leadership of the qadiani cult possesses the personal record of each and every individual qadiani. The qadiani centers in various counties are equipped with the state of the art computerized system and are connected with the qadiani headquarter in London – UK. With all the modern age resources on hand, it is needless to say that, it would not need any rocket science to collect the details of every member in the qadiani cult, “If attempted”.

Since the qadiani cult was founded on deceit that is why the cult leadership is always deceptive about its true strength and evades publishing its correct population.

The trail of false population figures dates back to Mirza Qadiani himself as follows:

1897: In his book “Anjam Atham”, mirza qadiani said:

“ Before the mubahillah I had 300 or 400 faithful with me and now they are exceeding 8000 who are so loyal ” (ref: anjam e Atham, roohani khazayn, vol. 11, page 310 on footnote)

However, during the court proceedings of the income tax law suit in 1898 this figure reduced to only 318 as follows:

1898: “ In the early days Mirza Qadiani worked for living in this cult per this attached list there are 318 faithful ” (zaroorat ul imam, roohani khazayn, vol. 13, page 514)

This statement was presented in the court of law and was endorsed by Mirza Qadiani himself as follows:

“ Here the labour and investigation clerk Mr. Tajdin, teshsil dar of Pergand Batala, is worth mentioning who justly and truthfully has reported the authentic matters to the higher authorities ” (zaroorat ul imam, roohani khazayn, vol. 13, page 513)

In 1897 Mirza Qadiani had 8000 faithful and in 1898 this figure reduced to 318 only. The question raises that where did 7682 faithful disappear or did they perish in the plague ? Let's proceed further:

1902: In October 06, 1902 edition of the book Tuhfa tul Nadwa, Mirza Qadiani mentioned the strength of his faithful as follows:

“ within few years more than a lakh (100,000) have declared allegiance to me ” (tufa tul nida, roohani khazayn, vol. 19, page 101)

1903: Three months thereafter in January 1903, Mirza Qadiani said:
"The cult strength of one lakh has doubled (i.e. is now two lakh) "
(muwahibur rahman, roohani khazayn, vol. 19, page 306)

1905: And now growing to four lakh from two lakh:
" so its the milestone for offering immense gratitude that nearly four lakh humans have reverted in my hands by repenting their sins and apostasy "
(haqeeqatul wahi, roohani kahzayn, vol. 22, page 553)

1907: By the end of January 1907 a qadiani Gobles wrote a letter to Mirza Qadiani from Alexandria in Egypt (Misr) and Mirza Qadiani has boasted about this letter as his miracle. See as follows:

(Translation): " your faithful followers in these city (fe hazal bilaad) are innumerable and they are like the sand grains and pebbles to count. Here not a single is left who has not declared the allegiance to you and has not become a follower of your helpers "

In this letter the grammatical blunder in the phrase " " in Arabic language meaning "in these city" in English language is a clear indication that this letter was never written by an Arab rather was written by some Punjabi fellow (meaning non-Arab).

If this letter was not an artwork from the fabrication workshop of "Teechi Teechi" then possibly it was written and mailed to Mirza Qadiani by some of his own fellow from Alexandria in Egypt.

No surprise if Mirza Qadiani declared this "Egyptian" piece of news also as one of his numerous miracles. Nonetheless this qadiani blatant lie is "applauded" too.

In the early 1907, in Egypt the qadiani population was as enormous as the sand grains and pebbles and not a single Egyptian was deprived of embracing the curse of joining the qadiani cult. Surprisingly, where that "multitude" of Egyptian Qadianis has vanished that now perhaps not a single qadiani is traceable in Egypt.

This was a touch of Mirza Qadianis lies and fabrications. Let's review the realm of second so called khalifa Mirza Mahmood:

1922: “ I can approximately elaborate on the strength of qadianis. It's a cult of 4 or 5 lakh members. Around a thousand members are among “Lahori cult”

(akhbar al-fazal Qadian, dated 26 / 29 June 1922. refrence from qadiani mazhab)

1930: In the law suit of akhbar (newspaper) “mubahila” in 1927-28 the qadiani witnesses mentioned the Qadiani population as ten lakh (one million). In 1930 according to a qadiani writer of Kaukab Dari the world qadiani population was twenty lakh (two millions). In 1932 in Bheera (Punjab) during a debate Molvi Mubarak Ahmad (professor ahmadiya university – Qadian) mentioned qadiani population as fifty lakh (five millions). Recently, Abdur Rahim Dard a qadiani preacher gave a statement before Mr. Filbie in England that in Punjab qadianis are in majority. In Punjab the total Muslim population is 15 millions. According to Abdur Rahim Dard qadiani, in Punjab there should be a qadiani population exceeding 7500000.

(report risala shamsul islam bheera Punjab, vol. 5 No. 10,reference from qadiani mazhab)

However, thanks to the government's official census that disclosed the factual situation concerning the population and eventually Mirza Mahmood was compelled to surrender to the actual figures. Hence he comments as follows:

“ previously when per the old government census our population was 1800, way less than the present, there were 1400 subscribers to akhbar badar. The present new government census counts the total qadianis as 56000 and if we draw our present qadiani population based on the previous proportion then only in Punjab our subscribers to akhbar would be exceeding 4000.”

(Mubahila's statement, vol. 13, page 197)

“ Our qadiani population according to the census in Punjab is 56000 and may be it is wrong. (No doubt it is wrong. According to government report of 1931 the total population is 55000 in which several thousands of Lahori group members are included. So actually then qadianis are no more than 50000). However, suppose that the figure of 56000 in in Punjab is correct and suppose further that in the rest of the India our population is 20000 then yet the total qadiani population would be 75000.

(khutbaat e mahmood, vol. 15, page 186)

Note: The above statements have been taken from "Khutbaat e Mahmood" as verbatim.

Hence, to say, the result of half a century of preaching of qadiani faith is 75000 believers in total which was claimed as 7500000 in Punjab alone by Abdur Rahim Dard. The two numerical figures 75000 and 7500000 have apparently a difference of only two zeros (00), not a considerable difference, and according to Mirza Qadiani himself, "Is this a difference worth considering?", so Mirza Qadiani has written in the preface of his book "braheen e ahmediya" (part 5, roohani khazaeyn, vol. 21, page 9):

"earlier I intended to write 50 volumes however just felt enough at writing 5 volumes, and because the figures of 50 and 5 have a difference of only a dot therefore the promise is fulfilled by writing only 5 volumes"

(* in Arabic or Urdu script the zero is represented by a dot for example fifty is written as)

Above was a brief introduction of how qadiani population is reported. In 1954 Justice Munir mentioned qadiani population in an enquiry report as follow:

1954: "present qadiani population in Pakistan is reported as around two lakh"
(court enquiry report, page 9)

Below here the qadiani population is presented from 1897 to 1954 at a glance:

1897	:	during the realm of Mirza Qadiani	8000
1898	:	- do -	318
1902	:	- do -	100000
1903	:	- do -	200000
1905	:	- do -	400000
1907 / 1908	:	close to the demise of Mirza Qadiani	400000

1922	:	during the realm of Mirza Mahmood	400000 / 500000
1927 / 1928	:	-- do --	1000000
1930	:	-- do --	2000000
1932	:	-- do --	5000000
1931	:	government official census	56000 (in only Punjab)
1931	:	-- do --	75000 (in whole India)
1954	:	Justice Munir court enquiry report	200000

Careful review of above statistics regarding qadiani population reveals the fact that during the realm of Mirza Mahmood the qadiani population had been reported between 400000 and 5 millions whereas Mirza Mahmood also accepted the figure of 56000 which was reported by the government official census. Furthermore, in 1954 total qadiani population in Pakistan was reported as 200000.

Let's proceed towards third qadiani khalifa Mirza Nasir:

1971: "Mirza Nasir announced the qadiani population as one karore (10 millions) in the annual congregation" (ref: Mirza Tahir's Friday Sermon, 25th October 1991)

Mirza Tahir had spoken about the qadiani population in his Friday speech of 25th Oct. 1991 wherein Mirza Tahir outrightly dismissed the population claim of one karore or 10 millions previously declared by Mirza Nasir and explained that it was the result of falsified reporting and clarified that correct population was less than one karore or 10 millions. Mirza Tahir confessed as well that different qadiani wings within Pakistan and abroad misinformed Mirza Nasir about the qadiani population. Mirza Tahir quoted as an example of this falsification that Mirza Nasir once announced qadiani population in "a country" as One million whereas it was only half a million to be correct.

The blunder by Mirza Nasir in declaring incorrect qadiani population was as well repeated by Mirza Tahir who exaggerated the qadiani population to the extent that one would "invoke God" seeing such a great falsification.

Mirza Tahir in 1993, in the qadiani annual congregation (Jalsa Salana) of London, staged a drama of international conversions to qadianism and announced that in the year 1993 a multitude of 204308 people have joined the qadiani cult and the next year in 1994 he announced twofold of it and the year next in 1995 he carried on with two-folding addiction and this "doubling-drama" of new conversions continued till the year 2002, the drop scene of which happened in 2003 when Mirza Tahir met his hellish fate and the same year of 2003 a conversion of only 800000 new people was announced with the "coronation" of Mirza Masroor the fifth khalifa of qadiani cult.

1993	204308	2001	81006721
1994	421753	2002	20654000
1995	847725	2003	892403
1996	1602721	2004	304910
1997	3004585	2005	209799
1998	5004591	2006	293581
1999	10820226	2007	261969
2000	41308975	2008	354638

Below is a summary of this falsification:

Total Conversions from 1993 to 2002: 164,875,605

(Mirza Tahir realm)

Total Conversions from 2003 to 2008: 2,317,300

(Mirza Masroor realm)

Total Conversions 1993 ~ 2008: 167,192,905

Roller Coaster Population Claims by Qadiani Cult

According to above statistics (based on references from qadiani sources), we see a massive addition of 16 karore (167 millions) people to the qadiani cult from 1993 to 2008. On the same grounds qadiani leadership claims that the world qadiani population is 20 karore (200 millions). A statistical glitch is quickly drawn from all these lunatic claims that if the qadiani leadership keeps exaggerating their growth at the same rate then soon the qadiani population must exceed the total world population.....

(so, do we need to book the planet Mars to accommodate this explosion in the world population ? No surprise at all if this Lunacy makes such a claim also like Jalsa Salana 20xx in Qadian-e-Sani on Mars and proves a prophecy of stepping on that planet by qadiani khalifa from some verse in Quran... (M3azAllah)....qadiani Murrabis are well capable of "twisting" the Quran to their convenience.)

Hence, for only sanity to understand, it is not wrong to infer that population growth claim by qadiani cult leadership is the worst lie of this age.

Population claim of 200 millions in the world by qadiani leadership is on one side, the different factions of the qadiani cult as well are equally confused and irrational while reporting their population. Their population claims on the internet are highly inconsistent and contradicting as follows:

- 1. Mirza Tahir kept maintaining till 2002 that qadiani population is 20 karore (200 millions) in 193 countries.*
- 2. The figure of 200 millions was published on so called "alislam.org" qadiani website and remained so for a long time, however, then dramatically changed from 200 millions to "Tens of Millions" to intentionally mislead.*
- 3. There is another qadiani website "ahmadiyya.org" in UK and therein qadiani world population has been mentioned as still 200 millions but in 176 countries.*
- 4. Press secretary of qadiani cult Abdul Aziz released a news to a Sri Lankan website "lankaweb.com" according to which qadiani population is 220 millions in 190 countries.*

5. The website of a London daily "timesonline.co.uk" published qadiani population as 70 millions in 180 countries, obviously reported by no other than qadianis sources.
6. An Indian daily website "hinduonnet.com" with reference to a Kerala news published a statement by Mirza Masroor claiming qadiani world population as 170 millions in 190 countries.
7. According the a French website "france24.com" the qadiani world population is only 20 millions in 193 countries.
8. Daily Jang London of June 12, 2008 published a statement of Rafique Hayat president of qadiani cult - UK giving an interesting estimate of qadiani world population as 75 millions only.

Let's summarize the above as follows:

1. Mirza Tahir (till 2002)	---	200 Millions
2. alislam.org	in 193 countries	200 Millions (originally)
3. alislam.org	in 193 countries	Tens of Millions (now)
4. ahmadiyyah.org	in 176 countries	200 Millions
5. lankaweb.com	in 190 countries	220 Millions
6. timesonline.co.uk	in 180 countries	70 Millions
7. hinduonnet.com	in 190 countries	170 Milloins
8. france24.com	in 193 countries	20 Milloins
9. Jang London (June 12, 2008)	in the whole world	75 Millions

It is so hilarious that the reader feels like riding a roller coaster while going through these a century old population claims varying from 8000 to just 318, growth in lakhs every year then only 1400 to 4000, then we see the magical doubling for many years, then unbelievably converting the whole Egypt into qadiani believers, 200 Millions to 220 Millions, 70 Millions to 170 Millions down to 20 Millions and most strangely 75 Millions according to Rafique Hayat president qadiani cult in UK supposedly the most authentic source and

Roller Coaster Population Claims by Qadiani Cult

By:
Abdul Rahman Bawa

eventually no qadiani traceable in Egypt

Here a sure question arises, " What is the qadiani cult's world population in reality ? ".

Mirza Tahir claims 200 Millions and if Rafique Hayat reports only 75 Millions then where 125 Millions of qadianis have vanished ? did they sink into earth or did they leave the cult by reverting back to their religion that was before conversion ?

Epilogue:

Qadiani cult (so called Jamaet – e – Ahmadiyya) highly boasts of itself to be a well organized entity, it has no doubt the best of resources and technology of modern age, claims to be part of a "Divine Advent", substantiates its creed from Quran surpassing the entire Arab Nation by authority and command on Arabic language and yet this super-Jamaet is so shamefully lame to present its factual population !!!

Does not this explain that qadiani cult not only likes to live in self deception but is befooling the entire world too ?

However, the mystery is over and the untold truth has naturally revealed but still every member of qadiani population, being under intimidation by the cult, is compelled to turn the back at the facts and live like a Nincompoop.

We conclude from this review that actually the qadiani world population is very insignificant.

Challenge To Qadiani Khalifa Mirza Masroor :

We take this opportunity to challenge the qadiani leadership that if they have any little courage and moral ascendancy left then would they be willing to engage a third party and absolutely unbiased institution to carryout an international census to publish the exact qadiani population in the world ?
